

Jack's Big Music Show – Sing Along

H₂O+O₂+Sun

I brought some seeds to plant and sow
Come let's watch my garden grow
These tiny seeds are full of life
So take good care to plant them right

Give them water
Clean air
And sun light
Give them water
Clean air
And sun light

It'll take some time for these plants to grow
Nature's clock is neither fast nor slow
Soon you'll start to see them sprout
Those tiny buds just pop right out

Give them water
Clean air
And sun light
Give them water
Clean air
And sun light

I'm waiting and wondering and watching all night
Will I wake up tomorrow to a beautiful sight?
Full of flowers in hues
Orange, red yellow, blue
My garden's in bloom
What a spectacular view

So when you plant those seeds
With care and pride
Nature's magic comes alive

Give them water
Clean air
And sun light
Give them water
Clean air
And sun light
Give them water
Clean air
And sun light
