

Weekends at 6am and 9am ET sprout

SproutOnline.com

THE DINO STOMP

words & music by Tim Burns

Stomp, Stomp like a dinosaur
Each foot-step sounds like thunder
Stomp, stomp like a dinosaur
You don't want to be underneath
When I come your way and flash my teeth
And roar - (Raaaarr!)
here comes the dinosaur!

Stomp stomp like a big T. Rex
Beware my fearsome jaws!
In fact my bite's so scary
No-one laughs at my tiny front paws

Apotosaurus are herbivor-us
That means that they eat plants
But did you know these gentle giants
Also loved to dance?

(dance dance dance)

Stomp Stomp stomp, one hundred million years before us
The dinosaurs all disappeared, except For the dancing Banjo-saurus!