THERE'S NOTHING BETTER THAN BEING ALL TOGETHER

All: There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together for the Holidays

Patty: Hey everybody, we hope you like the show!
Ricky: We're so excited that you made it through the snow,
Gang: We dreamed about this the whole year through
And then best part is we get to share it with you! Because...

ALL: There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together for the Holidays

Curts: Now every day can be a holiday,
If you think about it in just the right way
Ricky: It's not about toys or a game you play
Patty: It's a feeling you get, then you give it away!
Banjo: The more you feel well the more you share,
Miles: Soon the holidays are everywhere!
Kelly: So don't look in a box
Sean: Or under a tree,
ALL: The Holidays are in you - and - me!

ALL: There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together for the Holidays

ALL: There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together
There's nothing better than being all together for the Ho—li---daaaaaays!!!!
