THE SILLIEST CONCERT

words & music by Tim Burns

At the silliest concert that I ever did see
A tiny mouse was playing on the big timpani
The very first strike sent him flying... (Bounce)
And he landed in the balcony
At the silliest concert that I ever did see!

At the silliest concert that I ever did see
The contra-bass player was a chimpanzee
He plucked the strings on the long wooden neck, (pluck pluck pluck)
Then he climbed it like a tree,
At the silliest concert that I ever did see!

The cello was filled with jello,
the clarinets were covered in cheese,
you'd think the audience would be upset,
but all I heard were tee hee hees

At the silliest concert that I ever did see
The piano player always hit the wrong key
He played with his nose and his elbows...
He was crazy, he was funny, he was... me!

At the silliest concert... at the silliest concert...
Yes the silliest concert that I ever did see!!!!
BRAVO!
